

Koji

Online Content Creator

After launching his Twitch channel in early 2020, Koji has seen an instant rise in popularity establishing himself as one of the top creators on the platform in the UK. He has built a loyal community through his accessible variety streams, creating a safe place for viewers to relax and escape.

Whilst streaming regularly five days a week, Koji's upbeat personality had led him to working with some of the world's top brands and developers in the space, including Coca-Cola, Xbox and StockX.
